

NAEYC Accreditation Seminar I

hosted by
MtAEYC & the Accreditation Sub-Committee

Looking for more information about NAEYC Accreditation?
Already accredited and wondering what the new system changes look and feel like?
Elbow-deep in the Self-Study or Self Assessment process already and wanting to talk with other's who are or have been there?

MtAEYC is hosting an Accreditation Seminar in Helena to coincide with Center Director's already traveling for the Director's Symposium on September 10 and 11, 2009. Join us for a continental breakfast, overview of the new NAEYC accreditation steps, and opportunities for a hands-on look at Self-Study materials, Classroom and Program portfolios, & Candidacy Materials. Get help developing a realistic timeline for your program. Get answers to some of your questions from people who have successfully completed the process.

Thursday, September 10, 2009
8:30 – 11:30 (before the Director's Symposium)
Park Plaza Hotel
22 North Last Chance Gulch – Helena

 - ◆ Teacher qualifications
 - ◆ Timelines / Procedure / Action Plan development.

Symposium participants registering for this seminar will be contacted prior to the seminar to help us fine tune our plans. Some of the questions we will be asking concern your level of experience, which particular step you are at now, which Self-Study kit you are working with, and other workshops you may have attended about accreditation.

There is no Registration fee. Continental Breakfast is included.
This Seminar will be a Montana-approved training (3 hours).

Register for the Seminar on the Director Symposium Registration Form.
